Essay Mark Scheme – use this to self assess and write comments

A*/A – The answer has high level argument, lots of well explained facts, a clear structure and a good conclusion with some original ideas.

B – As an A but the answer perhaps has areas of factual drift and lots of knowledge which might not be addressing the question.

C – A well researched answer, that is mainly factual and relies on the conclusion to get across the argument.

D/E – An essay that only partly researches the facts, may list lots of information without addressing the question, that might lack a structure (introduction, main factors and conclusion) or may be incomplete.
